

I. Purpose

The Taipei City Police Department sincerely invites you to provide language interpretation services during the World Masters Games 2025 (May 17 - May 30).

II. Scope of Assistance

When the police handle various cases involving foreign individuals who require language assistance, we will contact potential interpreters by phone to ascertain their availability and willingness to provide on-site interpretation services.

III. Interpreter Fee Standards

(A) Daytime (06:00 - 22:00):

- NT$1,000 for the first two hours per case.
- NT$500 per hour for each subsequent hour. Fees for interpreting less than half an hour will be halved, and fees for interpreting half an hour or more but less than one hour will be calculated as one hour.

(B) Nighttime (22:00 - 06:00):

- NT$2,000 for the first two hours per case.
- NT$1,000 per hour for each subsequent hour. Fees for interpreting less than half an hour will be halved, and fees for interpreting half an hour or more but less than one hour will be calculated as one hour.

IV. Transportation Expense Standards

● Within the city

Reimbursement will be based on actual expenses for public transportation (bus, MRT) without the need for receipts.

● Driving private vehicles:

Transportation expenses will be reimbursed based on the fare of the equivalent public bus or coach route without the need for receipts.

● Long-distance

Reimbursement will be based on the standard class fare for trains, public buses, or high-speed rail, provided seats are available. Receipts are required for reimbursement.

● Nighttime (22:00 to 06:00)

Taxi fares will be reimbursed based on actual expenses with receipts if public transportation is unavailable.
